From The Crown

Hearken all Outlanders to these, the words of your King and Queen, Vagn and Thora.

Good people:

We hope you read these letters with a gladness of heard as spring finds its way to Our kingdom and anticipation of summer blooms in each of us as the blossoms on the trees.

Though We thanked many of you in Our last letter for your work at Estrella War, We must again say how proud We are of Our army. Time and again did We hear how wonderful it looked to have all of you in Outlands tabards! We thank each of the groups who donated money to help pay for these tabards — most recently the Barony of Unser Hafen and the Shire of Scorpion's Hollow.

Also concerning Estrella, We thank Lord William of Chesterfield for calligraphing Our thank you letters. The generous gift of his talent made each of Our letters more personal and well displayed the Outlands.

We wish to thank His Excellency, Don Echevarian and the Barony of al-Barran for hosting Her Majesty and the recent Heart's Tourney while We were visiting Our cousins to the east in Meridies. We also wish to thank Kestrel and the College of St. Golias for the wonderful job they did organizing the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Collegium. We were well impressed with the variety and quality of the classes offered and We hope all who attended them gained a great deal of knowledge from them.

At the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Collegium, it was Our pleasure to welcome Lord Thomas Fraser into the Order of the Laurel. Please congratulate this very talented noble should you be fortunate enough to meet him.

You will notice that We have included Our list for the upcoming Crown Tournament. We hope many of you will be able to attend this most noble event in Dragonsspine as We determine Our heirs. This event will also mark the induction of THL Reese into the Order of the Pelican, and Lady Drahomira into the Order of the Laurel. Plan also to attend the Coronation of Our heirs in Drygestan which should prove to be a most remarkable event.

With these last words, We charge each of you to speak up if you see something amiss in Our kingdom. It is everyone's duty to bring to Our attention problems which affect Our subjects. Remember, tyranny of any form can only exist if people allow it.

A Report from Estrella War XI

Unto the courageous armies of these Outlands does Sir Bjarni Kenhelm send greetings.

I write to you today to share with you some of my thoughts on this past Estrella war. As brother to the king and one of the commanders of the al-Barranian army, I was in a unique position to hear much feedback from fighters and leaders of other kingdoms, and after thinking about it I decided to write a letter expressing my thoughts. What I heard and what I saw on the battlefield leads me to make this statement: I am proud and honored to live in the Outlands! Many of out foe said time and again that they had never met such honorable fighters on the field. A knight of Atenveldt brought gifts to His Majesty to show his appreciation for your honor. He relayed stories of Outlands troops allowing fallen Aten warriors to stand so that all could fight more. He spoke of Outlands fighters honorably taking light shots.

Other fighters have told us that they will only return to Estrella War when we are one of the principals! Still other fighters said that because of the Outlands being a principal in this year's war, they had the most fun, the best fighting, and encountered the most chivalry on the field.

I personally saw our army working as tight, well-practiced units. I could fight with a group from the north and then move over to fight with our southern troops as smoothly as if I had trained with them every week for the past six months. There was a complete lack of ego amongst our troops that allowed them to move and fight for the glory of the entire kingdom rather than their personal gain. What an army!

His Majesty declared the war a tie, and some in our army were confused as to why this was done, as we were ahead four to one. I won't cheapen this letter or our honor by discussing the reasons. But you can rest assured that his Majesty left you and your kingdom's honor not only intact but greatly enhanced.

The emotions behind this letter are very self-serving, and I make no apologies for this. This was not only our first year as a principal, but we fielded well over 150 troops. And we did what many said could not be done; fight four battles per day (and all by two o'clock). We should feel proud. Take a bow, I am.

Academy of Middle Eastern Arts

April 1-2

(or everything you wanted to know about middle eastern...well, almost everything)

Have you ever wondered what it was like to live in north Africa or the Levant (near east)? Are you curious as to just how those middle eastern folk wrap those turbans, paint their faces, dance or drum? How do you go about constructing a middle eastern persona and where are those names coming from? And...what about life in the hareem, or seraglio as the Turks would say?

On April 1st and 2nd in the barony of al-Barran these and many other topics will be explored. This will be a two day workshop on middle eastern persona, life, customs and beliefs. Workshop classes will include history, culture, costuming, cosmetics and bathing customs, tent making, middle eastern armor and weapons, foods, middle eastern fighting styles, music (drumming and singing), dancing, and we are even teaching a soldier/ fighter's dance (men/ fighters only for this class).

April Fool's Masked Ball

April 1

The Shire of Windkeep invites you to put on your most creative face and revel with us to celebrate the rites of Spring in the Outlands. The festivities will be ruled by the luck of the slice, as a token will be baked into a scrumptious chocolate cake. When the last slice is enjoyed, the fortunate gentle who gets the token will be crowned and treated royally during the day's events. The winner may choose a consort to share the festivities of the day. These flights of Springtime fancies will include dancing, darts and decadent desserts.

A masque competition will be held during the afternoon. Bring a masque or fabricate one with materials provided at the site. The List for the masque competition opens at 3 p.m. which will allow gentles some time to create an entry to be worn in a grand procession honoring the King of Fools. Masques will be assigned a number and each gentle will cast a ballot during the feast for the most creative expression of the springtime fancy which turns our hearts to thoughts of Love. In return, all the winners will present a bardic song or story during the feast for the less fortunate, tokenless gentles.

Weather permitting, a Foolish Tournament will be held in the park next to the feast hall and merchants may make arrangements to sell their wares. If the Crown attends, and so wishes, court will be held.

Such foolishments begin at 12 noon, April 1, 1995 at the Lion's Park Community Center in Cheyenne, Wyoming, the Shire of Windkeep. The shire will provide the main entree for the feast which begins about 6 p.m. and with your creative contributions of veggies, salads and desserts, a marvelously decadent time will be had by each and everyone.

The fees are as follows: Paid reservations postmarked before March 25th (w/proof of membership) is $5.00. Children age 6-12 are half price. Children under 6 are free. Reservations paid at the door are $7.00. Non-members must add $3.00 to prices. Merchant's fee is $5.00 for space available, which can be paid the day of the event.

The site is damp, beer and wine only and in period containers. The event is limited to the first 100 paid reservations and a simple midday brunch will be provided for a donation. For feast information after March 25th, please contact the Head Cook. Please make all checks payable to SCA-Windkeep and send them to the autocrat postmarked by the 25th of March. Merchant fees may be included with reservation fees; please make notations considering distribution of fees on the check or include a note. Thank you.

Directions: Take I-25 to the Central Ave. exit. Turn east at the stop light and proceed east, taking a right turn into Lion's Park. You will take the second left turn from there, and proceed through the park to the turn for the Botanical Gardens on your left. The Community Center is just around the curve in the road. Grand Outlandish XXII

May 25-29, 1995

To the nobles and gentles of the Outlands and the Known World please know that the barony of al-Barran will be hosting the Greatest Event in the Known World. The Twenty-Second Grand Outlandish Tournament will be held May twenty fifth to May twenty ninth in the Faire Barony of al-Barran.

There will be the time honored traditional tournaments. The Lord (or Lady) of Outlandish , the Citadel Crest Tourney, The Drygastan Knife Tourney. We have enlisted the talents of Sir Richard of Wolfwood from Calontir to help Sir Lavan organize all the melees. We will be building a Castle Wall with a real gate we can batter in. There will be heraldic consultation by Lady White Stag, there will be many merchants (we had over thirty last year) for shopping to your hearts content. This year we will be holding arts and sciences classes organized by Mistress Sara de Montgomerie as well as displays of artists from the known world. There will be bardic performances, games, laughter, and fun. Basically we will have the greatest event in the entire known world. By the command of the Baron and Baroness of al-Barran each member will be allowed to bring only two non-member guests.

The daytime is hot so bring water and sunscreen and hats. The nights can be cold so plan for cooler temperatures. There is some deadwood on site, but plan on bringing your own firewood if you want a campfire as we will not cut or allow to be cut any standing trees on site. We will require a minimum of one fire extinguisher for every campfire and a maximum of one campfire per encampment. There will also be a fire marshall this year who will inspect all fires to make sure they are safe. We will have no repeats of last year's fire episode.

Pets are welcome but need to be caged or leashed. We are expecting quite a few horses on site throughout the weekend. This part of the country is a plague area so please take appropriate steps to protest your own and your pet's health.

There will be a children's bardic Friday night after court and other children's activities. Parents are encouraged to help out with their time and wisdom.

We will have even more details and an event schedule in May's issue. But start planning now for the best event you will ever go to.

The site fees will be $15.00 for early site preparation (arriving Thursday). Grand Outlandish attendance Friday or Saturday $10.00. Sunday only $5.00. There will be a five dollar additional fee for all non-members. Children under 12 free. All minors must be accompanied by a legal guardian. Site closes on Sundown Monday May 29.

We will also allow pre-registration from April 1-May 14, 1995. Pre-registration will be allowed this year to help us cut down time at the gate. Please fill out the form and send a SASE to the pre-registration coordinator listed at the bottom of the article.

Important Note: If you are a minor planning to attend Outlandish without your legal guardian or if you are planning to bring minors who are not your legal dependents, you must fill out and notarize a parental and a medical consent form as well as a minors waiver. These forms can be obtained from the event coordinator or the registration coordinator.

Merchants: Reserved space in the market is $30.00. All merchants must gain the approval of the Merchant Coordinator prior to displaying their wares. Food merchants must obtain a certificate of health from the state of New Mexico.

Grand Outlandish XXII Work Party

April 15-16, 1995

All you good Outlanders read these words and be glad; for indeed there is one more opportunity for you to come help prepare the grand Outlandish site and reserve a wonderful campsite over a month before the actual event.

The work will begin at 9:00 on the remaining two days. We will let people concentrate upon their own campsites if they have already worked on the general area on a previous day. We have a detailed site map and your campsite will be marked and reserved for you.

Be prepared for rough terrain and cactus. Wear long pants, boots, long- sleeved shirts. Bring drinks as there is no water on site, we will have water bearers for the workers but please bring your own and maybe some more for your friends. Bring food for you and your friends as well, there will be an auction of Box Lunches to benefit the site organized by Countess Elisheva, but there might not be enough for everyone so bring food. You should also bring gloves, axes, rakes, hatchets, tweezers, shovels, wheelbarrows, bandaids, sunscreen, and hats. Mark Your Own Tools. We will finish some time around 3:00pm. Since we are working both Saturday and Sunday feel free to come and camp in your reserved spot, to save the long drive back home each day. So come on out and help and even get to practice camping for the actual event With a few exceptions (ie. Autocrats point and the Royal encampment) all sites are up for grabs. We need all the help we can get so come on by and help al-Barran and yourselves make this the greatest Outlandish ever.

If the weather seems bad or particularly wet the week before the party please call the Grand Outlandish autocrat or Master Kragon at 505-832-2634 to verify that the party is on.

Dragonsspine Warlord

June 2–4

This year begins a new tradition in that all 4 court positions for the Barony of Dragonsspine will be chosen at one grand event. The positions are Warlord (heavy weapons), Defender (fence), Ranger (target archery), and Captain (combat archery). The competitions for Warlord and Ranger will be held on Saturday and Defender and Captain tournaments will be held on Sunday. The highest placing Dragonsspinian in each competition will win the title, with the winner of each tournament receiving a prize.

The site is Red Rocks National Campground and is wooded, has running water (may not be reliable, so bring your own drinking water), and has several fire pits. Pets must be leashed at all times and fire extinguishers are required at each campsite. Standard Forest Service rules will be in effect.

The site opens at 6:00 pm on Friday, June 2nd. The Warlord tournament will begin at 10:00 am Saturday morning and will be fought round robin on several fields with a wide variety of weapon styles, so bring all of your toys and be prepared to share. Target archery will held under the direction of the current Ranger, Lady Eudoxia d'Antioche.

Sunday morning will begin with the Baronial Defender tournament being held as per the whim of Lord Richard of Bainbridge. Outlands Equestrian Activities Policy

All equestrian activities (defined as any SCA-sponsored activity at which horses are present, i.e., practices, guild practices, events, demos, etc.) are subject to special insurance provisions. Unless attendance is limited to SCA members, prior notice to the insurance carrier is required for each event in order for insurance coverage to be in effect. Without this notification, if even one non-member is present, there is no liability coverage to protect the SCA, its members, directors, and officers against claims.

To ensure that equestrian insurance, safety, and other requirements are met, all Outlands equestrian activities must be coordinated through the Kingdom Seneschal's office in order to have SCA sanction. Lady Kassandra of the Wolves (see the Kingdom Officers listing) has been appointed Deputy Kingdom Seneschal for Equestrian Activities. All equestrian activities must be coordinated through and approved by Lady Kassandra before an event form is submitted or any announcement is published. Lady Kassandra will also coordinate the required notification for the insurance coverage. If equestrian activities are planned, the event form must indicate that this coordination has been completed.

From the Seneschal

Baron Lambert de Sur

Good Gentles,

The Society for Creative Anachronism has been coming under increasing external criticism and scrutiny recently. The Society is actively attempting to maintain its reputation and public image as an educational historical recreation group. Your support is requested in this effort.

One area in particular with which we must be concerned is religious activities. The official SCA, Inc. policy, stated in its Governing and Policy Decisions 6 (G&PD 6), is:

"Having no wish to recreate the religious conflicts of the period under study, the Society for Creative Anachronism, Incorporated, shall neither establish nor prohibit any system of belief among its members. No one shall perform any religious or magical ceremony at a Society event (or in association with the name of the Society) in such a way as to imply that the ceremony is authorized, sponsored, or promulgated by the Society or to force anyone at a Society event, by direct or indirect pressure, to observe or join the ceremony. However, this provision is in no way intended to discourage the study of historical belief systems and their effects on the development of Western culture."

"Except as provided herein, neither the Society nor any member acting in its name or that of any of its parts shall interfere with any person's lawful ceremonies, nor shall any member discriminate against another upon grounds related to either's system of belief."

In practice, this means that, at events, religious activities of any sort (including religious weddings, sword blessings, etc.) shall not be conducted as a formal part of or in "public" areas of the event. Religious activities may be freely conducted privately in your own encampment or other areas distinct from the court or central areas of the event. Event announcements in either Kingdom or local newsletters may not contain any references to these private religious activities.

We need to be especially careful at demos. Our involvement with and support to schools, civic groups, and local governments is an excellent way to enhance our public image and pursue the SCA, Inc., educational goals. Individuals participating in demos do so as official representatives of the SCA, Inc., and must strictly abide by G&PD 6. Local seneschals must approve all demos and carefully screen the participants to ensure the Society is properly represented. Duchess Sedalia, the Society Seneschal, has provided some suggestions for demos:

1) avoid long black garb and cloaks
2) no religious symbols [of any sort]
3) use the term "middle ages" rather than "medieval"
4) use "SCA, Inc." or the full name instead of "the Society"

At other times and places, use common sense. Everyone has a right to their own beliefs, but avoid giving the impression that your beliefs are shared by all members of the SCA, Inc. Tailor your dress, accessories, and actions to be appropriate to the site and situation. If I attend an event at a synagogue or mosque, I do not display my arms (which contain crosses) to avoid any impression of lack of respect for the group's beliefs. Similarly, in other situations, other symbols may not be appropriate. Its not a question of restricting individual rights, but one of showing others the same respect you hope to receive.

From the Earl Marshal

Sir Jalut Gaston de Navarre

Salutations again, unto all fighters and their supporters in our glorious Outlands! I hope each of you is progressing in skill and honor on the field as best you can. However, I still have not heard from a number of Knight Marshals and Authorizing Marshals. It is extremely important that I hear from you before the middle of this month! .... Sir Hakon and I are determined to "remake" the marshallate here in The Outlands. To that end, he, Baroness Llamrei and I are putting together a system for authorizing marshals and making the reporting system easy to bear. Estrella proved that the marshals on the field need to have more than just a basic understanding of fighting, as a number of situations that were extremely dangerous (for the marshals) arose. However, we need your help. If you have questions, comments, ideas, we would like to hear them. We plan to have something in place by Grand Outlandish.

I have only had a couple of responses for the new Marshal Secretariat position, and I will be making my choice very soon. If you have not yet corresponded with me, please write me as soon as possible if you are interested.

As I said last month, please know that I am here to make the fighting as fun and as safe as possible. If there are problems, take it up first with your Knight Marshal and Ruling Noble (if you reside in a Barony), and only then with me if the results are unsatisfactory. Remember, I look forward to your help. May each of your shots be true!

In service to the Outlands,

Jalut

From the Rapier Marshal

Don Maximillian Steanbrycg

Greetings!

I would like to address a few things that I've either not addressed or need to reiterate for everyone.

First: I have no idea when we will be implementing the "new rules for schlagger" or for any other aspect of rapier combat. There are changes in the rapier rules pending at the corporate level. There is little point in passing new rules every few months as the corporate rules unfold; what we have in place now works and the new rules will include very few changes to the way that we actually play the game. The main differences will involve authorizations, the addition of the schlagger blade as a form for which one must authorize, and the clarification on certain vague or ambiguous points.

Second: There has been some question of late as to whether or not some people are familiar with the Rules for Rapier Combat for the Kingdom of the Outlands. I've encountered a few people underarmored or discounting blows below the knee because they thought that was the way things were done. If you encounter someone like this, try to help them. Offer them a copy of the rules or if you don't have a copy, refer them to someone who does. Instruct them on proper hit locations and armor standards.

Third: The Outlands made a VERY GOOD showing at Estrella. If you attended the "War Point" meeting, you know how well the Outlands rapier fighters did with both combat and comportment at the war. I want to thank you all.

Last: Don Christian St. Claire is planning a Collegium for October. This collegium will have a very careful focus on period technique, and things we can do to more closely approximate it. If you have source material or if you have a class you'd like to teach, contact him directly or through me and work out the details.

Thanks Everyone!

Max

From the Archer Marshal

Lord Peregrine Elric of Courtenay

Sends Greetings Unto the Archers of the Outlands! Much has occurred since Caerthen Twelfth Night when I became Archer General, serving as a Deputy to the Earl Marshal. My aim (no pun intended) is to make Archery in the Outlands an Inclusive, not Exclusive activity. It is, after all, a well documented sport of Nobles throughout the ages. . .

Target Archery at the Estrella War went very well with Outlands, Atenveldt, and Caid each running one of the segments of the Archery War Point. There was some initial misunderstanding among some of the Caidian Archers as to their role to balance numbers of the two principal Kingdoms, but a safe and enjoyable time was had by all. Outlands Archers who qualified to shoot in the Known World Archery Championship (top five shooters from each Kingdom) included Lord Rand the Tracker of Oak Hollow, Sir Mark von dem Falkensfenn, Lord Peregrine Elric of Courtenay, Leo Hakola, & Haldane Talon the Wicked. Well done!!

The much discussed topic of ongoing recognition for shooting excellence has finally arrived at a very workable concensus. Scoring for the Royal Sport of Archery will be maintained by the archery marshallate in accordance with the definitions of the Open and new 'Period' divisions of the Inter-Kingdom Archery Competition (published elsewhere in this issue). This is separate from the forming Archery Guild, and is similar to the way other Kingdoms keep track of their target archers.

Scoring will be using the same Royal Round three score average and categories used last season; Novice = 0-24, Bowman = 25-44, Yeoman = 45-64, Forrester = 65-84, Bowmaster = 85-104, and Royal Bowmaster = 105+. An archer must still own their own equipment for Yeoman and above, but THERE WILL BE NO A&S REQUIREMENTS OTHER THAN THOSE USED TO CLASSIFY EQUIPMENT as Open or Period division, using the IKAC definitions of Sir Jon Fitz-Rauf.

Tassels introduced last season will still be used, with one difference. The color of the knot will signify the Division, either Open (Blue) or Period (Gold). A gold knot will show scores that were shot with both bow and arrows which could have been used pre-1600, (no center cut bows). An archer may be recognized as a Yeoman for their Open Division scores with a blue tassel and blue knot, and a Yeoman for their Period Division scores with a blue tassel and gold knot. The Royal Bowmaster (NOT to be confused with the Royal Archer who stands in Court) would have a gold and green tassel with the appropriate color of knot. These tassels will be permanently held by the archer.

All scores for this season (IKAC & Royal Rounds) should be sent to Yanthlos the Quiet, c/o Morris Stewart, 6521 Evers Blvd., Cheyenne, WY 82001, who has agreed to keep them on his 'counting box'. His phone is (307) 634-3500. As with the IKAC, Royal Round scores will be counted for the entire season. An additional change regarding the ranking scrolls - His Majesty Vagn, King of the Outlands, has directed that the Archer General will sign the scrolls for the various rankings as they are earned.

Other items of interest to Archers

Archers Guild - For those interested in the forming Archers Guild, Lord Thorfinn Greybeard agreed to be the "incipient Guild Leader" when Peregrine assumed dutes as Archer General, in order to keep the Guild activities organizationally separate from the archery marshallate. Input & questions relating to the forming Guild may be directed to Lord Thorfinn, c/o Perry Wells, 3601 El Caminito, Loveland, CO 80537. (303) 667-1284.

Childrens Archery - Plans are in the works to have tassels for childrens archery which would be shown by a white knot, as soon as we can finalize the most appropriate yardages for a childrens division - please send me your input.

Combat Archery - Attention Archers who are also authorized Fighters, or Fighters who wish to use Combat Archery. The possibility of Combat Archery as a separate heavy weapons authorization is being considered by the Earl Marshal. Nothing is yet finalized, and if you have input, make it known to Sir Jalut.

Companions of the Golden Pheon — Get your input to Lord Peregrine prior to Crown Tournament, or better yet come to the CGP meeting 10 am Sunday at the Crown site!

Tournament for the Royal Archer — The tournament to determine the next Royal Archer of the Outlands will be held concurrently at Grand Outlandish and Brigands Bizzare over the Memorial Day weekend, and will again be one half of an IKAC. The dual site will give more archers a chance to compete for this great honor.

In service to the Outlands,

Peregrine

From the Chronicler

Lord Alwyn of Kittisford

Greetings to all who read this. This month The Outlandish Herald is packed with information on upcoming events and words of wisdom from your Kingdom officers. I strongly urge you to read carefully all these articles and letters, even if you don't think it pertains to you - you might be surprised.

I wish to apologize to everyone for the numerous error and omissions in last month's issue, especially to those whose information I left out. Hopefully, all of those will have been corrected in this issue. If you do catch an error, or just think something doesn't look right, please let me know. It's the only way the OH will improve.

Once again, please call me before you spend lots of money on overnight mail. If you let me know that something is coming, I can often wait a couple of extra days for it.

If you send me something by email, you will receive a confirmation within 3 days. If you don't, send it again or give me a call.

I remain,

Alwyn

From the Equestrian Guild

Kassandra of the Wolves

Greetings all!!! Our largest equestrian event is almost at hand! The purpose of this article is to cover a few important items before the event.

1) You MUST be a paid member if you plan to participate!

2) Please pre-register for the event and have your "Passport" handy as you arrive on the site.

3) Please contact me or an Equestrian Marshal on your area for the necessary forms and waivers you will need. We will also include a copy of the By-Laws and Rules of the List for you to look over prior to your arrival on site.

4) Please plan on stabling/corraling your horse yourself. We may have limited space available. The site owner asks that you not use trees to make corrales-some of the trees where damaged last year due to horses.

5) Hay needs to be stored off the ground and away from trees. Hay, especially if it gets damp, attracts insects that are extremely detremetal to the trees. Keep your hay in the trailer or on tarps or shipping palets.

6) There is a very limited amount of water available. Please plan on bringing your own supply.

We are planning on gymhana, processions, baring competitions, dressage demos, jumping demos, horse/rider classifications, and whatever else we can come up with between now and Outlandish. Hopefully we will have the new equestrian Autorization Cards available by then.

Pony rides are going to be limited to members, and minors with parents and signed waivers.

As a word of warning, there will be canons fired during the event. I haved asked Sir Kragon to let us know when these will be fired so we can be away from them or off the horses.

The equestrian Guild is looking for SCA members who own horses and are willing to let others who don't use them as they participate with the guild.

Please contact Lady Halla at (303) 634-8418 or "M J EMMONS@aol.com" if you have a horse that we can use.

Please call if you need more information. My address and phone are in the back of this issue.

In service,

Period Division

The Traditional Longbow division has been replaced by the Period Division. The main intent of the Period division is to encourage the use and construction of more period style equipment. This division gives a per-centage bonus of your total score for using and/or making period style equipment and also uses a different scoreing system. You can contact your kingdom archery oficer for copies of the new rules.

Archery Supplies Directory

I am putting together a directory of suppliers of unfinished staves and shafts and finished bows and arrows for the use of archers interested in making or purchasing period style equipment. I already have a list of suppliers which I have taken from current traditional archery magazines. I also wish to provide a listing of Society bowyers and fletchers, both indivudals and guilds. If you know of any in the SCA that can provide period style bows, arrows or other gear, plese send me their name, address and phone number and information on what they make, so that I can contact them for permission to include them in the directory.

Don't forget to make reservations for all the upcoming events – especially Crown Tournament and Coronation!

Be sure to use the registration forms for Grand Outlandish and the Known World Heraldic Symposium that you'll find in the center pull-out.

Believe it or not, the markings on the stone on the cover are actually Ogham writing, which translates roughly as "Unser Hafen". (Thanks again for the donation to the Herald!)
